[Long Island Sound Coastal Resilience Month Field Trip
Opportunities](#)

As part of Long Island Sound Coastal Resilience Month, we will be hosting field trips and resilience forums around the Sound. There will be two field trips in Connecticut!

Hammonasset Beach State Park Coastal Resilience Field Trip & Workshop

Explore one of Connecticut's largest coastal resilience and salt marsh restoration initiatives! Hear from Audubon Connecticut about the science and design behind the project, then visit the marsh and culverts that are scheduled to be replaced.

Wednesday September 16th

📍 Madison, CT

🍴 Lunch will be provided

👉 REGISTER HERE by September 9

Rain or shine. Some walking on uneven terrain is required.

Questions? Contact Sarah Schechter at sarah.schechter@uconn.edu.

West Haven Coastal Resilience Tour

See coastal resilience projects in action across West Haven! Hear from local practitioners about project history, funding, and lessons learned, then hop on a shuttle to tour completed, ongoing, and planned projects—including the West Haven Eco Park, Beach Street Elevation, and Cove River restoration projects.

Friday, October 2nd

📍 West Haven, CT

🍴 Lunch will be provided

👉 REGISTER HERE by September 29

Rain or shine. Transportation will be provided to each site.

Questions? Contact Deb Abibou at deb.abibou@uconn.edu.
